

SPARKLES and shoes

My Current Beauty Favorites

February 24, 2016

It has been a long time since I have given a rundown of my favorite beauty products. I know Sparkles and Shoes is not a beauty blog and there are dozens of ladies, and even a few gents who write terrific beauty blogs and film stunning YouTube videos about everything beauty related and then some but sometimes you need a pinch of real.

What do I mean a pinch of real? I will never endorse $1,000 per jar night cream or swoon all over glitter body lotion because someone gave it to me for free or paid me to say something nice about it. On occasion I do receive samples from companies but I use the whole thing before passing judgment and only if I really do love it (to the point where I would buy a full size with my own money), would I consider writing about it. So with a pinch of real I thought it was about time to share my current beauty favorites, six products I am currently loving.

RapidLash Eyelash & Eyebrow Enhancing Serum: This stuff works miracles, I have to tell you! I have mentioned RapidLash before on the blog but my love is everlasting and I have just started using both the eyelash and eyebrow serum again. I apply both products every night before bed and at the end of eight weeks I'll be sure to do a before and after.
