

Elizabeth Chambers Hammer's Nighttime Skin Routine Includes a Slice of Fresh Papaya

by HARPER'S BAZAAR STAFF

On this episode of Go To Bed With Me, Elizabeth Chambers shares her skincare secrets—including one you can eat.

Elizabeth Chambers Hammer knows that a good skincare product is like a good partner: when you find the right one, you keep it.

Next comes more moisturizer, an eye cream, face mist, and eyelash serum. After finishing her routine with a spritz of face water, Chambers declared that she's finally ready for bed—or a bedtime snack. After all, she still had half a papaya just laying around.
